Three-minute thesis competition

This session will include presentations from students enrolled in Masters or PhD programs. It will offer students a chance to showcase their work to an international audience. Students will be invited to sign up for the session that will be chaired by Dr. Jodi Oakman of La Trobe University. Presentations will be three minutes, and include one PowerPoint slide by students. Imagination strongly encouraged.

Please see the advertisement on the IEA website and contact Dr. Jodi Oakman at j.oakman@latrobe.edu.au to enrol.

Supervisors please encourage your students to join in.

The following students are already signed up, but more needed to make a fun and feisty session:

Voice of the Game: Vocal Ergonomics & Elite Sports Coaches
Katie L. Buckley, Centre for Sport & Social Impact and School of Public Health, La Trobe University, Melbourne, AUSTRALIA

The research-practice relationship in human factors and ergonomics
Amy Z. Q. Chung, School of Aviation, University of New South Wales (UNSW), Sydney, AUSTRALIA

It's a Jungle in Here: A Study of Crowding on Mumbai's Local Trains
Lily Hirsch, Appleton Institute, Central Queensland University, Adelaide, AUSTRALIA

Flexibility at work: Does it help employees' health and wellbeing?
Victoria Weale, Centre for Ergonomics and Human Factors, La Trobe University, Melbourne, AUSTRALIA

Keywords: presentation, student, three-minute thesis