Dear Al

I think it would be a good idea if the members of the Executive Committee had a short meeting on the evening of Saturday 25 August to sort out any outstanding problems for the Council meeting next day. I am sending a copy of this letter to Jan and I would suggest that he arranges it but it might be best held in your room at the Forum Hotel. As I have not received a reply to my letter of 16 May I have done no more about the nomination of Secretary-General. So that at least should be discussed before the Council meeting.

Enclosed are copies of some other letters relevant to the Council meeting and the provisional agenda.

I look forward to seeing you in Warsaw.

Yours sincerely

R G Sell
