

INTERNATIONAL ERGONOMICS ASSOCIATION (IEA) K.U. SMITH STUDENT AWARD

The IEA K.U. Smith Student Award honors deserving students responsible for contributions to human factors/ergonomics (HF/E). Awards will be presented during the IEA 2024 Triennial Congress on Jeju Island, South Korea.

The Award winners each will receive a cash award of US $3,000. A travel stipend also may be awarded.

Any student enrolled in an accredited post-secondary institution worldwide is eligible.

A student wishing to apply for the award should submit the following documents via email (see contact information below):

- (1) A full copy of a paper that the student has authored, which documents an HF/E contribution. The student should be first author on a coauthored paper.
- (2) A resume (4 pages limit, student name, address, e-mail, phone, institution, experience, publications, HF/E accomplishments/contributions).
- (3) A letter from the student's academic adviser on institutional letterhead certifying: (1) the paper was written by the student; (2) the student was primarily responsible for the work described in the paper; (3) the student was enrolled in the academic program when this work was carried out; (4) the period of time over which the work was carried out; (5) the work described was completed after August 2021; and (6) the paper is being submitted for the IEA KU Smith Student Award.

Awardees will be selected using four criteria:

1. HF/E scientific and technical merit
2. Relevance to design issues
3. Practical relevance
4. Originality and innovative content.
