

The IEA Distinguished Service Award

The IEA Distinguished Service Award is presented triennially to an individual who has made outstanding contributions to the promotion, development and advancement of the IEA.

Any current member of an IEA Federated Society can make a nomination for this award. Self-nominations are allowed.

To nominate, please submit the following:

1. A nomination letter that details the achievements and qualifications of the nominee that make him or her an excellent candidate to receive the award.
2. Letters of recommendation from 2-3 persons who can attest to the individual's qualifications and achievements.
3. The nominee's curriculum vitae or résumé.

Please combine these evidentiary items into a single pdf when submitting to the Awards Committee chair at PastPres@iea.cc, office@iea.cc, and VPSG@iea.cc by January 15, 2024.
